December 4th, 1918.

The Secretary,
Indiana Historical Commission,
State Library,
Indianapolis, Indiana.

Dear Sir:-

Will you kindly send to the Society, together with your invoice, copy of the Centennial Medal Book.

Yours very truly,

Secretary and Librarian.

*Ordered at the request of Mr J. Sanford Salter
at his expense.*

THE CENTENNIAL MEDAL BOOK

Nine hundred and eighteen medals, the first choice product of the dies, were mounted in an elegant little volume, containing seasonal chapters on "The Story of the Medal," "The Beginning of the State," "Some Milestones of the Century," and "The Indiana Centennial." Each copy was numbered and bears the personal autograph of the Governor. Only 133 numbered copies still available. Price, $5.00 each.

These prices were fixed solely with the idea of covering as nearly as possible the actual cost of the medallion, not a cent of profit having been received by anyone connected with its promotion or distribution.
